

James S. Rickards High School Senior Class Trip 2011

General Information and Itinerary

Very Important: You MUST have your completed Activity Form turned in to Mrs. Goodman in order to board the bus. NO EXCEPTIONS!

General Information

Upon our arrival in Orlando, we will go directly to Universal Grad Bash. Dress for the park, but you'll probably want to bring a sweater, light jacket, or blanket because it tends to be cool on the bus.

Personal Belongings/ Entertainment

You are responsible for all personal belongings (purses, clothing, cameras, cell phones, and other electronic devices) brought on the trip.

Blankets, pillows, books, and magazines are welcome.

All music/video devices (radios, CD players, IPODS/ MP3's, etc.) are to be played with earphones at all times.

NO BOOM BOXES, ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES, CIGARETTES, OR ILLEGAL DRUGS.

Medications

Very Important: You are not allowed to have any medication (prescribed or over the counter) with you at Grad Bash with the exception of inhalers for asthma. If you will need to take any medication during the time we are at Grad Bash, special permission has to be granted by Universal prior to the trip. You need to see Mrs. Goodman immediately for more information.

Itinerary

Please note the arrival and departure times and be PROMPT at all times. It is important to keep to the schedule and be considerate of others.

Also, note each "$" dollar sign is a PERSONAL EXPENSE; therefore, bring adequate funds for your meals, beverages, desserts, and souvenirs. Finally, we wish you a wonderful time!
